QUALIFICATIONS

Mrs. Ashbridge joined The Douglas Company in November 2013, bringing an extensive background and experience in the human resources field to the table with expertise in the areas of Organizational Development, Leadership Development, Talent Management, and Training. She has worked for the Medical College of Ohio as a Training and Development Specialist, Detroit Edison as the Director of Organizational Learning for the Enterprise, and The Ohio Board of Regents of the Associate Director of Career Technical Initiatives before joining The Douglas Company. Her focus is primarily on developing and managing a long-term strategic human resources plan that reflects the staffing, hiring, training, and promotional requirements needed to meet the company's growth objectives. Gayle is also responsible for creating and implementing programs to meet internal staff's current and future development needs.
